

Front-End Software Engineering Job Description

Description of Business Environment:

The job entails working in the Systems Solutions programme on a growing portfolio of programmes in the international area, this web development will expose the company product overseas. The Systems Solutions Business Area is entering a major growth phase as Pharmaceutical customers invest in exciting high technology Enterprise Solutions.

Specific Job Description:

Reporting to the Systems Solutions Software Engineering Manager, and under general direction of the Engineering Leadership Team, the role provides support to the internal programmes and for operational systems used by Systems Solutions customers.

Under the direction of the Team Lead:

- Contribute to team success supporting systems, software and infrastructure engineers to design high level architectures for enhancements to operational systems.
- Support for Integration during software development phases.
- Support technical investigations of problems raised against the operational systems.
- Work with senior engineers in discussions with pharmaceutical customers during requirements analysis, converting operational needs into technical requirement specifications.

Tasks will relate to:

React, Vue, Webpack, Node.js, Javascript, CSS, Html, PL/SQL, Oracle, Excel